EMAIL 1 · INTRODUCTION (DAY 0)

Subject: Small-batch candles for [Store name]

Hi [First name],

I came across [Store name] on Instagram and loved [specific detail, such as your fall window display]. I work with Lumen & Pine, a small studio that hand-pours soy candles inspired by forests and cabins.

Our customers often pair our candles with [type of product they sell], so I thought they might be a good fit for your shop. I've attached our wholesale catalog with pricing and minimums.

Would you like a few samples to see and smell them in person?

Warmly,
[VA name], on behalf of Olivia Hartwell, Lumen & Pine

LINKEDIN CONNECTION NOTE (DAY 3, UNDER 300 CHARACTERS)

Hi [First name], I enjoyed seeing how [Store name] supports local makers. I work with Lumen & Pine, a small-batch soy candle studio, and would love to connect.

EMAIL 2 · FOLLOW-UP (DAY 7)

Subject: Re: Small-batch candles for [Store name]

Hi [First name],

Just following up in case my last email got buried. Our Cedar Smoke candle has been our best seller with gift shops this fall, and I'd be happy to send one so you can try it.

Would a sample be helpful?

[VA name]

EMAIL 3 · FINAL CHECK-IN (DAY 14)

Subject: One last note from Lumen & Pine

Hi [First name],

I don't want to fill your inbox, so this is my last note for now. If the timing isn't right, no problem at all. I'll check back after the holidays, and our catalog is here whenever you need it: [link].

Thank you,
[VA name]
